DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO SEPT. 29

EASTERN STATES.

Funeral of an Actor.

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—At the funeral services today at Mount Auburn Chapel over the remains of Wm. H. Sedley Smith, veteran actor and stage manager, who died in California, Rev. Freeman Clark officiated. There was a large attendance of friends, including many members of the profession.

Trouble in Texas.

BROWNSVILLE, Sept 29.—Flores, alias Cilion, the desperate outlaw on the frontier and murderer of Chas. Alexander, has gathered a number of his fellow desperadoes and expresses his intention of crossing into Texas at Balesa, a short distance above here, and avenging the death of his two brothers, who were killed a short time since—one by the Sheriff's party and the other by Mexican cavalry. This added to the reported plan of Cortinas, has caused considerable anxiety.

The Commissioners of the Texan frontier having thoroughly investigated the question of Mexican depredations, have given an attentive hearing to many claims submitted. They leave today for New Orleans and Washington to report their progress.

Official Vote of Vermont.

Meeting of Oil Producers.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 29.—At a final meeting of oil producers at Oil City yesterday relative to shutting down wells, and also further drilling for a period of thirty days, resolutions were adopted prohibiting the use of Roberts' torpedo after March 1st next. All the districts were represented at the meeting. The meeting was unanimous and the object will be thoroughly accomplished. Three fourths of the wells throughout the country were stopped at midnight last night and the balance will follow. Advanced prices in oil will follow immediately.

Red Rascals in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—Santa Anna, chief of the Kiowa Indians, and Big Tree, another notable chief of the same tribe, who were temporarily released from the Texas penitentiary by Governor Davis, arrived here in custody and were taken to the Everett House, where the other Indians are stopping. During to-day all the Indians were assembled in the dinner hall. Santa Anna and Big Tree were presented to Captain Alvord and Robert Campbell, of the Indian Commission. Enoch Hoag, the Central Superintendent, with interpreters and several citizens, was present. The meeting of Santa Anna and Big Tree with their people was one of the most affecting in the annals of Indian history. The ordinary stoicism of the Indian nature gave way, and they hugged and kissed each other and cried like children. Santa Anna made a speech, and said he felt like one arisen from the dead to be with his friends again. He referred to the talk he had with Governor Davis, who told him he must work hard for peace and quietness his people to take the good road. If he did this he and Big Tree would probably be released. He wanted his people and the other Indians to be at peace with the whites, to let Texas alone and not to keep the war path. He wanted them all to listen to what he said to them and take the white men's road. Lone Wolf, the present chief of the Kiowas, expressed great pleasure at hearing Santa Anna. He said he had for a long time tried to get his people to go on the good road. He would treasure what the great chief at Washington may say to him, and do all in his power to keep the Indians at peace. Silky Way, chief of the Comanches, Big Mouth, chief of the Arrapahoes, and several others spoke in the same strain, professing a strong desire to be at peace with the whites, and looking forward to their visit to Washington as productive of much good to all of them. Previous to the council Santa Anna in a private talk with Captain Alvord, Col. Campbell and Captain Hoag denied that he was present at the massacre of Wilson's train, and said that there was no evidence of his guilt produced at the trial—that he was condemned unjustly. It is not intended to take Santa Anna and Big Tree to Washington, but, they will probably be placed in the custody of the United States Marshal to-morrow, to be held subject to orders from Washington. There is a strong desire on the part of the Indians that Santa Anna should be pardoned. The party will be shown around the city to-morrow, and probably start for Washington the next morning.

The Murderers of Mr Panorma.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The murderers of Prof. Panorma, the teacher of music at Brooklyn, in the public streets of that city in January last, will be remembered. A man named Higgins has turned informer. According to his story the crime was committed by four thieves, an Englishman named Kane, alias Cockney, and three others, Cassidy, Scotty and O'Brien, of New York city. Disappointed in an intended burglary, they resolved not to return empty handed. Seeing Panorma approaching, one said: "Let's go for this man coming up, and see what he has got about him." One grabbed him by the collar and said in a rough voice: "What have you got about you; come, pony up." As soon as he felt that he was grasped, and he attempted to cry for help, one of the four pulled a pistol and struck him on the neck with the muzzle saying, "Damn your dirty soul, if you roll again I'll blow your brains out." Feeling the muzzle of the pistol at his neck, Panorma stopped, and the man proceeded to go through him for his gold watch, when the man who pulled the pistol on him thinking Panorma would not dare to cry out replaced the pistol in his pocket. Seeing the pistol disposed off Panorma again cried for help, and that cry cost him his life, for with a terrible oath O'Brion struck him on the temple with a club, and as the unfortunate victim was reeling back from the effects of the blow he was again struck. This blow was the one which made the terrible sound which was so fully described at the time. Only two blows were struck, and the man who was robbing him of his watch grabbed it. Seeing him felled and bleeding, they all four ran off, and reached New York in different directions.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Paris.

The Patrie publishes a report of a recent conversation with Thiers, in which he declares that every one in Europe desires peace. Germany has weakened herself by the annexation of non-German territory. Russia is friendly with Austria and sympathizes with France and Italy, and remembers the past. France will have revenge not by guns but by works. She has nothing to fear.

CALIFORNIA.

Acquittal of Mrs. Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Contrary to all expectations, the jury in the Fair case rendered a verdict at nine o'clock. The Court met and the jury was called in. Upon being asked if they had made a verdict, the foreman answered they had. It was then handed to the Clerk, and amid the stillness of the grave the verdict of "Not Guilty" was read. The verdict was received with astonishment, but no signs of approval or dissent were manifested. The jury was polled and discharged, and immediately the prisoner was discharged from custody and left the court room in company with friends and counsel. Mrs. Fair appeared to be greatly excited. Much indignation was manifested at the verdict, but a great portion of the people accepted it as final.

Later.—Crowds surround the bulletin boards and discuss the Fair verdict, which is now the only exciting topic. Opinions differ as to the merit of the verdict, but Curtin is greatly praised for his management of the case.

The wind is south and the weather cloudy.

Nothing has been heard from the China steamer.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

A Winged Calf.

After furnishing many points of interest regarding his European trip, he entered upon a full description of the Indian situation. OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Seventh Biennial Session.

Senate.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

SALEM, Sept. 30, 1872.

Senate met at 2 P. M. President Fay in the Chair. Absent—Messrs. Cornelius and Strahan.

Journal of Saturday read and approved.

Mr. Monroe, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported S. B. Nos. 4 and 33 correctly engrossed.

Mr. Fay offered S. R. No. 13—that the Committee on Ways and Means be instructed to report on the amount of the State indebtedness and the amount of appropriations asked for the construction of public buildings, internal improvements, etc., of this present session. Adopted.

Mr. Dolph moved to reconsider the vote by which S. B. No. 16, for the relief of Baker county was passed. He stated that Baker county had received credit for the amount of relief allowed by the Legislature of 1866. He had supported the bill under the impression that the county had not been credited with the relief allowed in 1866.

Mr. Brown said although it is true that Baker county has had credit for the relief allowed in 1866, she had not yet received any substantial benefit from it, because the county had not complied with the provisions of the law under which relief had be granted.

Mr. Watson said that he would vote for the motion to reconsider so that a full examination of the discrepancies in the accounts of the county and State should be made. So the vote by which the bill passed was reconsidered and the bill referred to the Committee on Claims.

Mr. Bristow introduced S. B. No. 30, to encourage immigration by the distribution of documents and other information in regard to the resources and productions of Oregon. Read first time and ordered printed.

S. B. No. 32, to amend the law relating to private corporations, read second time and referred to Committee on Corporations.

S. B. No. 35, to amend the law relating to weights and measures, was read second time and referred to Committee on Counties.

S. B. No. 4, to amend the law relating to incorporating religious and charitable societies, was read third time and passed.

S. J. R. No. 6, proposing amendments to the Constitution of the State of Oregon, being the special order of the hour, Mr. Baldwin moved its adoption.

Mr. Myers moved to amend to strike out article four and five. He was opposed to the permanent location of public buildings at the Capital, and also to increasing the liabilities of the State.

Mr. Dolph moved to amend.

Mr. Dolph asked for a division of the vote on the two articles.

Mr. Myers moved a reference of the resolution to Committee of the Whole Senate. Carried.

S. B. No. 30, to amend the law creating a Register of State Lands in La Grande District, was read third time. Bill passed over the veto of the Governor. The Legislature, and defines his duties and privileges. It also empowers him to employ a deputy at a salary of $600 per annum.

Mr. Dolph explained that the only change made by the bill on the previously existing law, was the one recommended in the Governor's message in regard to the payment of purchase money on lands held by settlers.

Mr. Baldwin hoped the bill would pass. It was an act of simple justice to the settlers on land in that district to extend the time for payments of moneys due on said lands. Bill passed. Ayes 20—noes none.

A message from the Governor announced that there had been received at the Executive Office 500,000 acres, the grant embracing 42,512.67 acres in township 39 south range 8 east, township 39 south range 9 east and township 39 south range 10 east, located in Klamath lands, approved by the Secretary of the Interior September 11th, 1872, making the full amount of said grant now granted in the State, except 700 acres suspended on account of old pre-emption claims, which have been abandoned, and will within a short period be approved to the State under this grant.

Message were received from the House announcing the passage of House bills 4, 14 and 33. The bills were read first time.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1872.

JAIL WORK.

At last the Legislature has got to work making and unmaking laws, without the embarrassments and restraints which an excited Senatorial conflict has thrown about it hitherto. There are many men of talent and industry in both houses, and a willingness to forego all other considerations and labor together for the good of the State, appears to inspire most of the members of both political parties. It is not likely that there will be so much partisan legislation attempted during this term as characterized the proceedings of the sessions of 1868 and 1870, neither party having the ability, if it had the disposition, to carry its partisan schemes through the Senate. Under these circumstances we may reasonably expect something to be done in the way of wholesome legislation.

A bill has been introduced providing additional compensation for the Circuit Judges. This has been tried several times before, but has always failed. It is to be hoped, for the credit of the State, as well as for the proper administration of justice, that some measure of this nature may succeed. It is a reproach to our State that her judges are not paid a salary equal to the income of a second-rate lawyer at the bar. If there are constitutional objections to the increase of their salaries, as some of our soundest lawyers think there are, steps ought to be taken at once to amend the Constitution. It cannot be expected that men possessing the learning and ability that ought to distinguish the judiciary will accept positions on the bench when they could, with less labor and scarcely less honor, make twice or thrice as much in their profession as the State pays its Judges.

The law, by virtue of which Democratic newspapers are supported as a public charge, called the Litigant Act, ought to be repealed. No more unjust and oppressive piece of partisan legislation has ever been enacted in this State, nor one that received more general condemnation. The Democracy of California, during its brief rule, imposed a similar burden upon the people of that State, and the Republicans effaced the oppressive act from the statute book as soon as they regained the power. It is hoped the Legislature of Oregon will do likewise.

The End.

Laura D. Fair, indicted for the murder of Mr. Crittenden was once tried convicted and sentenced to be hung. Her counsel secured for her a new trial and she has been acquitted of the great crime. In the last trial, it is a remarkable fact that 12 men were found in San Francisco, who had not formed any opinion as to her guilt or innocence, but after eight days that number was found and having heard the evidence upon which the former jury convicted, all of the last twelve men have said upon their oaths, she is not guilty. Perhaps no criminal trial in American jurisprudence has attracted more public attention or been more extensively commented on by the press. Since the first trial the leading attorneys for the prosecution and defense have both died and another judge from the one who presided is on the bench. But after all the harassing delays and stoppages in the wheels of the car of justice the trial is ended and the woman at whose hands a man in the prime of life and full of hope, surrounded by a loving family met an awful death again comes forth into the world, free. It was for the jury to say whether she was innocent or guilty and their verdict legally estops the world from passing upon her case otherwise than as they have said. But though acquitted by a jury will she go unpunished? We trow not. Ever through the remainder of a darkened life the bitter ghost like memory of the horrible event will rise before her vision and will not "down at her bidding." Poor Crittenden, a victim to a great sin on his part, and perhaps not all the fault was his, let him sleep in his last resting place in silence and let the world throw the mantle of oblivion around the memory of her who was his companion in guilt and his cruel slayer.

At a Greeley Democratic County Convention held in Nye county, Nevada, one Mullen a State Senator and a prominent Democrat was chosen President of the Convention, and when about half through with its labors, became disgusted with its tricks made them a scathing, bitter speech of denunciation, accusing them of fraud, treachery and subornation for coin, withdrew from the Convention, bid its members and the party a political farewell, and said he and his friends had cut loose from the rotten old carcase of the Greeley Democracy and should vote for Grant and Wilson. He then left the Convention followed by a number of his friends. So things move and Mullen is only one of thousands who have already forsaken and will abandon Greeley before November.

The State Fair opened yesterday with flattering prospects of success. The stock and the products of the farm exhibited will be better in quality if not greater in quantity this year than heretofore, while from the indications of the opening day, the number of people in attendance—which is the greatest attraction of the Fair—will be very large. The arrivals in the afternoon were greatly in excess of those of the corresponding period of the last annual Fair.

Before the Maine election a Greeley paper said: "Mr. Greeley's personal popularity gives him Great strength with New England States, where he is so well known, and where the people have always had a kindly feeling for him." If he failed to make any gain where he is so popular, and where this kindly feeling for him is entertained, where can he expect to gain.

One of Gratz Brown's kinsmen says he got his red head from the Browns and his brains from the Bledsoes. If that be so, he got a great deal more from the Browns than he did from the Bledsoes.

One week from to-day the State elections will be held in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska. As soon as the news can reach us after that day, we shall send our readers news of five Republican victories.

The Mountain Messenger is severe on Tom Fitch. It says: "The Mormons have loaned Tom Fitch to the Democrats for the campaign. Tom is a good stump speaker, but has not character enough to swear by. We have known Tom many years, and it was always a puzzle to us why he did not join the Mormons or the Democrats. He had the symptoms of both diseases, and had 'em bad."

The Gilroy Advocate says the dry murrain has appeared among the cattle of San Felipe. It first made its appearance in the herds of James Dunne, who lost in the rate of twenty per day.

Oregon Carries the Banner.

The delegation from the Pacific coast to the Philadelphia Convention, having their headquarters together, resolved that the flag that floated over them at Philadelphia should be presented to the Republican party of Oregon in case our State was redeemed at the June election. The flag has been received by Hon. Chas. W. Parrish, Chairman of the State Central Committee, from Hon. James H. Withington, of the California delegation, and will hereafter float over the office of the Republican State Central Committee, at Senator Corbett's building on First street. The following correspondence on the subject needs no explanation:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.,
Sept. 4th, 1872.

To the Chairman Republican State Central Committee of Oregon—Dear Sir: Through the courtesy of Thomas Charman, Esq., of Oregon City, and on behalf of the California Delegation to the National Convention at Philadelphia, I have the honor of presenting your Committee with the flag that was thrown to the breeze at the Headquarters of the Pacific Coast Delegation at that Convention. At that time the verdict of Oregon stood trembling in the balance, and it was unanimously voted by our Delegation, should the Republican party carry the State, to present them with our flag, as a token of our respect and gratitude to those who could gallantly win such a brilliant victory in what was considered the impregnable stronghold of Democracy. The enthusiasm of that great Convention was unbounded when the glorious news flashed over the wires from the far Northwest, that Oregon had once more taken her place in the front rank of Republican States, thereby demonstrating the fact, that the strength of that great party which struggled so long and arduously for those principles upon which hung the destiny of the Republic and the hope of mankind, were still intact, and assuring us that under the leadership of Grant and Wilson, our chosen Representatives, another National triumph would be achieved in November next.

Believing that Oregon will be the banner State of the Pacific coast at the coming election, although we of California intend to sharply contest that honor.

On behalf of the California Delegation I remain respectfully yours,

JAMES H. WITHINGTON.

OREGON CITY, OREGON,
Sept. 27, 1872.

HON. CHAS. W. PARRISH, Chairman Republican State Central Committee of Oregon:—Dear Sir: On behalf of the California delegation to the Republican National Convention, lately held in Philadelphia, I have the distinguished honor of presenting through you to the good Republicans of Oregon, the accompanying patriotic letter from the Hon. James H. Withington, of San Francisco, California, with the beautiful flag spoken of in his letter, which I hope you will receive as a recognition of that bright particular star which was added to the galaxy of Republican States when Oregon on the 1st Monday in last June redeemed and disenthralled from ruinous Democratic dictation, gave the glorious principles of Republicanism one thousand majority. Hoping that with this event the last vestige of the dark night of Democratic rule in Oregon may disappear and that the day of eternal peace and prosperity brought about by Republican triumphs, may grow brighter and brighter through the long line of coming ages, let us fling to the breeze from the Republican Headquarters in Oregon, that beautiful banner as a pledge to the Republicans of California and the Pacific slope, that the depression has gone forth like the edict of destiny from the hearts of every Republican in Oregon, that the Democratic-Greeley coalition shall be and will be overwhelmingly defeated and that our fair young State shall on the 1st Tuesday in November, send her ringing voice to the front with THREE THOUSAND majority for Grant and Wilson.

THOMAS CHARMAN,
Delegate from Oregon,
to Philadelphia Convention.

PORTLAND, Sept. 30, 1872.

HON. THOS. CHARMAN—Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th inst., inclosing the letter of Hon. James H. Withington, and accompanying the flag of the Pacific Coast Delegation to the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia.

It is with feelings of pride, as well as thankfulness, that I accept, on behalf of the Republican party of Oregon, this beautiful flag, emblem at once of the unity and majesty of our National Government and of the triumph of that party to whose patriotism that Government owes its preservation and its prosperity.

The event that is commemorated by this generous presentation of the Pacific Coast Flag is the redemption of Oregon at the last June election from the hands of Democracy.

On the evening of November 5th Oregon will send to her sister California greeting with a majority for Grant and Wilson which shall eclipse the brilliant victory won in her State election.

Very truly yours,

CHAS. W. PARRISH,
Ch'n Republican State Central Committee.

Demands of Eastern Oregon upon the Present Legislature.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The prospects generally in Eastern Oregon at the present, to even the casual observer, is highly flattering and very encouraging to settlers, and especially so to the pioneer resident. The population of Eastern Oregon has steadily increased, capital in various ways invested in development and improvement of natural facilities, land and property greatly enhanced in valuation. The large tracts of vacant land and expansive, unoccupied valleys, noted for fertility of soil and rich pasturage, which could be seen a few years ago, have become the homes of the bone and sinew—honest and energetic farmers, such as will build up and sustain a country and improve its natural facilities. Such is the true character of the population of Eastern Oregon to-day, and for this reason we claim our interests should engage the attention of the present sitting Legislature, as much as that of other localities in the State. There are many things which we must have, sooner or later, else we cannot long tread the pathway of progression successfully—among which, nothing is so essential as a railroad. But again, there is something else we are greatly in need of. At the present time it is impossible to travel any great distance in Eastern Oregon without paying a heavy toll tariff, thus precluding the possibility of having either cheap importation or exportation. The result of this ruinous practice is very apparent; it increases the price on goods and nearly absorbs the profit on exported produce; therefore we are deprived of a market, except such as we have in our own midst. For this reason money is a scarce article among our farmers. Our country is getting too much settled up—too rich to permit its interests to be barricaded. We must cut loose from monopolists, who are sapping our country's vitality. We must own those toll roads and control them so as to result in universal public benefit. A bill was introduced in regard to purchasing the Meacham road through the Blue Mountains in the present Legislature, which our Senators and Representatives would do well to use the utmost diligence to have passed. The purchase of the road would prove a benefit to their constituents and to the country in general. Let the road be bought and thrown open to travel—the people can keep the road in repair.

State aid for railroads in a great many instances have resulted in vast benefit. The policy of the general government in, that no more grants of land from the public domain shall be made to any corporate body. The reasons assigned for this policy are more than plausible, and certainly well sustained. There are a few instances where land grants work greater benefit than others, and where the demand and necessity for such grant of land were greater.

An effort was made during the last Congress to secure a grant of land for the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, which was unsuccessful, though the necessity was great and urgent. The failure of this measure has resulting in impeding materially the progress and early completion of the great enterprise. Having thus failed to gain aid from the general government, an effort is now being made at the present sitting of the Legislature in this State to gain State aid for the enterprise. The railroad to which aid from the State is desired, is one that will, when complete, benefit the whole State, and more especially Eastern Oregon. Hence the necessity of a great effort on the part of our Representatives and Senators in urging this matter to a successful termination.

These are the most important demands which Eastern Oregon has upon the attention of the Legislature of Oregon, and we hope they will attend to the matter. L. H. WELLS.

HASTY BROKER.—Our readers will doubtless recollect the circumstance of the suicide by cowardly drowning, of a man named Chapman, who leaped from the Stark street ferry boat. This occurred during the month ago. Domestic trouble was the assigned by him at the time he committed the rash act. His wife was troubled at times with fight attacks of insanity, and on the occasion of his voluntary death it appeared had do ceased him. The mental shock Mrs Chapman received from the intelligence of her husband's suicide was such as to drive her almost to the verge of death. After the first violent pangs of grief had subsided she settled down into a state of mind melancholy bordering on idiocy and in which she remained. Her health also gave way and she became a mental burden and she began rap with the severe mental affliction of her husband. Some of her friends sent her to the Insane Asylum, where she was placed temporarily on the charge of the Sisters of Mercy. Last Sunday she appeared unusually depressed, in the evening and cried. She was heard to declare several times that her husband was in the room with her, and could not be persuaded out of the room. Suddenly she rose up and, pressing her hand over her heart, exclaimed, "Oh I see my husband" and fell back lifeless. This seems to be a case of death literally from a broken heart.

A FIG CASE.—A lady named Mrs Edwards fell in a fainting fit yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, at the Washington street, immediately in front of the Chinese fruit store of Chas Holder. She called and inquired where the Court House was. On being told, she departed and on reaching the sidewalk sank down insensible. Several persons who saw her fall, ran to her assistance and found her entirely unconscious. A crowd soon collected, the lady was carried into the store, and Dr Kinsey summoned. Before the physician arrived, however, she began to tear her hair, wring her hands and beg in the most piteous manner for some one to give her back her child. The doctor endeavored to quiet the woman but without avail. She continued to act in a crazy manner and utter the most heart-rending cries. At last she was taken temporarily to the American Exchange Hotel and ordered to go to bed. In the evening her husband, who is a painter in East Portland, was notified and came over. He will probably be to accompany his wife home, which she evidently did, uttering all the time her cries and wails so loudly as to cause a crowd to assemble in front of the store. The woman is undoubtedly insane at the present time during the latter part of the night, while the family were fast asleep. The burglar effected an entrance through a pane of the front windows.

FAST FIGHT.—Chinamen of this city have a number of bad habits, but the vice of intemperance cannot often be laid at their door. These people use opium to excess, in many instances, but they never indulge intemperately in the use of ardent spirits. It appears that two Celestials got drunk rather freely on last Sunday and the natural result followed—a drunken brawl. Two of the most prominent combatants in the melee—Ah Lee and Hai Foo—were arrested and brought before Judge Denny. That officer fined each the sum of $10 and costs.

SUCCESSFUL.—A San Francisco exchange, in speaking of the late lecture of Minnie Myrtle Miller at Platt's Hall, says "It proved one of the most thoroughly successful lectures ever delivered in this city. Its whole tone was good. It abounded in amusing incidents, keen sarcasm and brilliant criticism of Joaquin Miller's peculiar style. The applause was loud and frequent. Miss Miller should certainly deliver this lecture once more in this city before proceeding to the East, to whom she will assuredly will the star lecturer of the coming season."

WATER PIPES FOR PORTLAND.—The Olympian of the 27th ult., says: By the steamer California, to-day, the Washington Water Power Company of this city shipped to Don Hollis & Co at Portland, 625 waterpipes (5 000 lineal feet) of 12-inch bore. These pipes are to be laid on the Portland hill for the supply with water of the reservoir, depot, &c. This shipment is the first of 25 for Mr Holladay.

PASSENGERS.—FREIGHT.—The steamer Olympian, which arrived here last evening from San Francisco, brought but little freight besides Wells Fargo's express and a few passengers.

ADJOURNED.—The United States Circuit Court met yesterday morning. No business of importance was transacted and the Court adjourned.

STEAMER OLYMPIA.—The steamer Olympian, arrived last evening from San Francisco having on board the circus troupe of John Wilson. The steamer blunded on the east side of the river, so that the circus horses, paraphernalia, etc., could be debarked without difficulty. The troupe took the cars this morning for Salem and will perform at the State Fair during its continuance. From all accounts this is the largest, best and most powerful troupe which has yet ever visited the State.

ADDITION.—The work on the addition to the Bishop Scott Grammar School is progressing rapidly towards completion. The basement has been finished and the frame for the first and second stories raised. The first story has been in closed and the roof will soon follow. The work is being pushed with all possible vigor during the present good weather. The present intention is to have the new building ready for occupancy by the first of next month.

MUSIC BOOK.—Some friend has laid on our table a new musical work published by O Ditson & Co, called the Standard. It contains complete instructions for beginners, and a large amount of good music, both secular and sacred, and is a first class musical publication.

G A R.—By the orders of the Post Adjutant, E W Ryan, the members of Baker Post G A R will meet at their hall this (Tuesday) morning at 9 o'clock, to attend the funeral obsequies of their late comrade, H. A Bodman.

TO KALAMA.—The steamer Eonia Hayward conveyed the Northern Pacific Railroad party down to Kalama yesterday, from which point they will make a tour of inspection over the Sound country.

FUNERAL.—The remains of Dr H A Bodman will be followed to their last resting place, by the members of the Masonic fraternity, Grand Army of the Republic, and numerous friends of the deceased.

IN THE RIVER.—Persons from down the river, state that the little schooner Miss Bond is in the river, and will be up in a few days. She brings a full cargo of produce etc., from Tillamook.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—The case of State against Dr Glass, D. Jacobi and A C Dray, charged with assault and battery, will come off before Judge Denny this morning.

VERY LOW.—At last accounts, Wm Davidson, now an inmate of the Asylum, was lying very low and his death expected almost every hour.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Oriflamme, arrived at this port yesterday morning from San Francisco, with 49 passengers and 400 tons of freight.

OFF.—Two small sailing vessels were seen off the bar as the Oriflamme crossed over. They were however too far off to be identified.

AT ASTORIA.—As the steamer passed Astoria Sunday morning, both the barks Siam and Loch Dee, were both lying at that place.

LOADED.—The steamer John McNear took a load of wheat down last night to the bark Manilla which is now at Columbia City.

TO LEAVE.—The steamship Oriflamme will sail from San Francisco for this port to morrow evening at 5 o'clock.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The boats arriving each evening are full of passengers.

The arrival of the steamers last evening made the wharves lively.

The fall business has set in rather lively, and the wholesale merchants are doing a brisk business.

William, who is an undersized clerk in a dry-goods store, objects to being referred to as "that little drygoods Bill."

Sailors are in active demand in this port at $35 per month for the coasting trade, and $20 for foreign vessels. And are quite scarce at that.

The gentlemen connected with the N P R R, who have gone north, will return in about a week. They are supposed to establish the final terminus of the road.

The exodus has already commenced, and our earliest birds of passage have hied to Salem to bet on horses and feast their eyes on large squashes and fat hogs.

The annual incursion of San Francisco "drummers," anxious to enliven the fall trade, has reached the climax. The number is greater than it has been for many years previously.

The parties connected with John Wilson's Circus arrived here last evening from San Francisco on the Olympia. The troupe is a large one, and we recognize among them many old and familiar faces.

AMUSEMENTS.

PERSONAL.

Ed Hall is again on duty as Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, on the Dalles railroad, succeeding Mr. Welch, who returns for the present.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE DOLLAR STORE.—You will be astonished when you call at the Dollar Store and find such an immense stock as is now displayed there. Like sensible men, the proprietors advertise.

FRANKLIN MARKET.—This market advertises this morning for a share of the patronage of our citizens, and we are sure it will be liberal when it becomes known that our friend Robb sells only meats from animals selected by himself from the best herds and of the most tender, and kept on pasture till killed. This morning he has the largest and fattest deer ever brought here—weighing 220 lbs net—a good chance for epicures.

THEY HAVE IT.—If you have made up your mind to array yourself in a new outfit and are desirous of getting the latest styles best goods and lowest prices you cannot do better than call and select from the fresh imp ortations which Mr Erhart has just received in San Francisco for the house of J Noble & Co, No 54 First street. They have without doubt the finest goods ever offered to the public. Go to the window of go further look inside. Counsel is unnecessary.

ALL IN ONE.—Quinn the indefatigable, has made a new move. The First street stand has been closed and his up town customers will find him at his old stand where many improvements have been made. If you want Game Fish or anything it stands to reason to find in Fish Market, Washington street, between First and Second.

Natural Decay—Protect the System

The human body is a machine, and therefore cannot endure forever but like a watch or sewing machine it will last much longer if properly regulated and duly repaired. If my pulse were taken to keep it in order. The great object of every one who desires a long and healthy life should be to put his body in a condition to resist the life threatening influences by which we are all more or less surrounded and no invigorant and corrective at present known so effectively answers this purpose as the vitalizing elixir which under the unpronounceable name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been for more than twenty years the standard remedy of America. In every clime where the atmosphere is contaminated with the miasmatic compounds from living populations in marshy regions where the icy soil rocks with miasma on the prairies and in the forests where every fall the air is tainted with exhalations from rotting vegetable matter or decomposing leaves—in short, in every locality where malaria exists this powerful vegetable antidote is urgently needed. Fever and ague, bilious fevers, dysentery, congestion of the liver, jaundice rheumatism and all diseases which are generated by infected air impure water or sudden changes of temperature, may be averted by strengthening and regulating the system in advance with Hostetter's Bitters. Autumn is always a season of great especially to weak susceptible organizations. Even the more vigorous are apt to be in some measure depressed by the humid atmosphere loaded with deleterious gases produced by vegetable decay. The fall is a period of he year when the renovation and regulation of the living machine is peculiarly important and the Bitters should therefore be taken daily at this critical season.

ADJOURNMENT AND RETURN OF THE GENEVA TRIBUNAL.

GENEVA, Sept 15.—A special dispatch from Geneva says, at the close of proceedings in the Board of Arbitration yesterday, Count Sclopis read an address congratulating his colleagues on the good relations preserved between them throughout the sessions of the Board, and thanking them for the impartial support they had given him in the discharge of his duties. He also thanked the Swiss authorities, federal and municipal, for the courtesies extended to the members of the Court. The Arbitrators and other gentlemen connected with the Court then exchanged farewells and separated.

GENEVA, Sept. 14.—The decision of the Tribunal awarding damages to the United States, begins with a recital of the formal language of the terms of the Treaty of Washington, the names and titles of the arbitrators and agents of the Assembly at Geneva, the exchange of powers, the presentation of the cases, and continues verbatim as follows:

The Tribunal, having fully taken into consideration the treaty cases, counter cases, documents, evidence, arguments, and all communications made, and impartially and carefully examined the same, has arrived at the decision embodied in the present award;

WHEREAS, Having regard for the six and seventh articles of the treaty, the arbitrators are bound by the terms of the seventh article in deciding the matters submitted, to be governed by three rules therein specified, and by such principles of international law, not inconsistent therewith, as the arbitrators shall determine applicable to the case; and,

WHEREAS, The due diligence referred to in the first and third of said rules should be exercised by neutral Governments in exact proportions to the risks to which either belligerents may be exposed by failure to fulfil the obligations of neutrality on their part; and,

WHEREAS, The circumstances out of which the facts of the subject matter of the present controversy arose, were of a nature to call for the exercise on the part of Her Majesty's Government of all possible solicitude for the observance of the rights and duties involved in the proclamation issued May, 13, 1861; and,

WHEREAS, The effects of a violation of neutrality committed by means of the construction, equipment and armament of vessels are not done away with by any commission which the Government of belligerent Powers, benefited by the violation of neutrality may afterward grant, that vessel and the ultimate step by which the offense is completed cannot be admitted as a ground for absolution of the offender, nor the consummation of his fraud become the means of establishing his innocence; and,

WHEREAS, The privilege of exterritoriality accorded to vessels of war is admitted into the law of nations, not as an absolute right, but as founded on the principles of courtesy and mutual deference, and, therefore, can never be appealed for justification of acts done in violation of neutrality; and,

WHEREAS, The absence of previous knowledge cannot be regarded as a failure in the law of nations in a case in which a vessel carried its own commendation; and,

WHEREAS, In order to impart to supplies of coal a character inconsistent with the second rule, prohibiting the use of neutral ports and waters as a base of operations, the special circumstances of time, person, and place; and,

WHEREAS, In respect to the vessel called the Alabama, it clearly results from all the facts relative to her construction in the port of Liverpool, and her construction in the port of Liverpool, and her equipment and armament in the vicinity of Terceira, through the agency of other vessels dispatched from Great Britain for that purpose, that the British Government failed to use due diligence in the performance of neutral obligations, and, notwithstanding the official representations of the agents of the United States during the construction of the said ship, omitted to take effective measures of prevention; and that the orders of detention which the Government did finally give, were issued so late that the execution of them was not practicable; and,

WHEREAS, After the escape of that vessel the measures taken for her pursuit and arrest were so imperfect that they led to no result, and therefore cannot be considered a sufficient release of Great Britain from the responsibility incurred; and,

WHEREAS, Despite the violation of neutrality committed, the same vessel was on several occasions freely admitted to ports of the colonies of Great Britain, instead of being proceeded against as she ought to have been in any and every port of British jurisdiction where she might have been found; and,

WHEREAS, The Government of England cannot justify itself for its failure in due diligence, on a plea of insufficiency of legal means of action it possessed, four of the Arbitrators for the reasons above assigned, and the fifth, Lord Cockburn, for the reasons separately assigned by him, are of the opinion that Great Britain has in this case failed by omission to fulfill the duties prescribed in the first and third rules established by the Treaty of Washington; and

WHEREAS, In respect to the Florida, it results from all the facts that the English authorities failed to take measure adequate to prevent a violation of the Neutrality law, notwithstanding the representations of the agents of the United States to her Majesty's Government, it failed to use due diligence to fulfill the duties of neutrality. It likewise results from the facts relating to the stay of the Oreto at Nassau, to her issue thence, to her enlistment of men, and receipts of her supplies and armament, with the co-operation of of a British vessel, the Prince Alfred, in Green Bay, that there was negligence on the part of the British Colonial authorities; and,

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding the violation of the Neutrality law by Great Britain, committed by the Oreto, the same vessel later called the Florida, was on several occasions admitted into British ports; and,

WHEREAS, The judicial acquittal of the Oreto at Nassau cannot release Great Britain from the responsibility incurred under the principles of international law, nor can the fact of the entry of the Florida into the Confederate port of Mobile, and her stay there during four months, extinguish the responsibility previously incurred by Great Britain. For these reasons the Tribunal, by a great majority of four voices to one, is of the opinion that Great Britain has in this case failed, by an omission to fulfill the duties prescribed in the first, second and third rules established in article six of the treaty of Washington, and,

WHEREAS, With respect to the Shenandoah, it results from the facts of the departure from London of the Sea King, and her transformation into a cruiser near Madeira, that the English Government is not chargeable with any failure down to that date in due diligence to fulfill the duties of neutrality, but whereas, it results from the facts that the stay of the Shenandoah at Melbourne, and especially the augmentation which England admits to have been clandestinely effected in her force by enlistments at that port, that there was negligence on the part of the authorities at that place.

For these reasons the Tribunal is unanimously of the opinion that England has not failed, by any act of omission, to fulfill the duties prescribed by the three rules of the treaty, or by the principles of international law, in respect to the Shenandoah during that period of time anterior to her entry into the port of Melbourne, and by a majority of three to two the Tribunal decides that Great Britain has failed in her duties as prescribed by the first and third roles, in the case of the Hobson's Bay and after her entry into for the acts of the and is therefore responsible from Melbourne, Feb. 19, near her departure

As relates to the Tuscaloosa.

Tuscaloosa and Archer, tenders to the Alabama and Florida, the Tribunal is unanimously of the opinion that those accessories must follow the lot of the principals, and submitted the same decision.

As relates to the Retribution, the Tribunal, by a majority of three to two voices, is of opinion that England has not failed to fulfill her duties in the three rules.

So far as relates to the Georgia, Sumter, Nashville, Tallahassee, and Chickamauga, the Tribunal is unanimously of the opinion that Great Britain has not failed to fulfill her duties prescribed in the three rules or by rational law. It is of the opinion that the Sallie Jeff Davis, Music, Boston and Joseph are excluded from consideration for want of evidence, and,

WHEREAS, So far as relates to the particular matter of indemnity claimed by the United States, the costs of the pursuit of the cruisers are not in judgement before the Tribunal and properly distinguishable from the general expense of the war. The Tribunal, therefore, is of the opinion, three to two, that there is no ground for awarding any sum by way of indemnity under this head, and,

WHEREAS, The prospective injuries cannot properly be made subject to compensation inasmuch as they depend in nature on future and uncertain contingencies, the Tribunal is unanimously of opinion that there is no ground of award on this head; and,

WHEREAS, In order to arrive at an equitable compensation for damages sustained it is necessary to set aside all double claims for the same loss, and all claims for gross freight, so far as they may exceed the net freight, and,

WHEREAS, It is just and reasonable to allow interest at a reasonable rate, and,

WHEREAS, In accordance with the spirit and letter of the Treaty of Washington, it is preferable to adopt as the form of adjudication a sum in gross, rather than to refer the subject of compensation for further discussion and deliberation to a Board of Assessors provided by article 10 of the treaty, the Tribunal, using the authority conferred by article 7 of the treaty, by a majority of four voices, award to the United States the sum of fifteen millions, five hundred thousand dollars in gold as the indemnity to be paid by Great Britain to the United States for the satisfaction of all the claims referred to.

The considerations of the Tribunal were in conformity to the provisions contained in article 7 of the treaty, and in accordance with the terms of art. 6 of the treaty The Tribunal declares that all the claims referred to are hereby fully, perfectly and finally settled, and it furthermore declares that each and every one of said claims, whether the same may or may not have been presented to the notice or laid before the Tribunal, shall henceforth be considered and treated as settled and barred.

In testimony whereof the present decision and award have been made in duplicate, and signed by the Arbitrators who have given assent thereto, the whole being in exact conformity with the provisions of the Treaty of Washington. Made and concluded at the Hotel De Ville, Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 14, 1872. (Signed),

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS,
SCLOPIS,
STAEMPFLI,
ITAJUBA.

A man named George Washington, at the Federal Capital, thought to imitate his illustrious namesake, last week, and taking his "little hatchet," severely hacked some of the choice trees in the Agricultural Park at that place. But the results of the two experiments were somewhat different. The first G. W. got into all the school books in the country, while the latter only got into jail.

Since Chicago has been made a port of entry, there has been a vast saving to her merchants. When their importations were entered in New York, they were compelled to pay $5 to a broker for each entry, but now they can make the entries personally at an expense of only fifty cents each. The imports for the month of August were the heaviest ever known.

The bear crop in the vicinity of Chico is quite plentiful. G. W. Colby caught two on his ranch last week, in a log house trap; one a thousand pound grizzly, the other a cinnamon, weighing about three hundred pounds.

Patrick Henry has been sent to the penitentiary (or three years, from Marquette, Michigan. Let us now see whether anything was meant by his saying, "Give me liberty or give me death."

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 6th and 7th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith and appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its ascendancy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time, has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unexampled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their fellows. It has added a new policy toward the Indians, and wherever they have been honestly dealt with peace has prevailed and civilization has advanced. Where Republican governments have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion, the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers; immigration has been promoted and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency, it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at the lowest rates of interest. Effective measures have been carefully enforced and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during U. S. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been encountered, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who either have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectively maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. No law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out specifically by appropriate Congressional legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government works to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and the thorough fitness of applicants, ascertained by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and secure honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolists, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7 The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We honor in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such disability.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having met, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of naturalized citizens to transfer his allegiance having been incorporated into European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a confirmed and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10 The fostering privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognizes the duty of enacting legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of their two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President are only fulfilled an important duty in their resistance to the suppression of violent and unreasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent system of currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further manifestations is received with gratitude and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16 The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of assailing constitution at laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either State or National Government.

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

19. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.
